

Bolton Council

Bolton
Library and Museum Services

Looking for your next read?

Keen to find a good read for now? Or struggling to concentrate at the moment? But keen to get a list of future reads together? These websites might help you discover something new and quite different to your usual choices. We'd love to hear what you have enjoyed reading recently.

Bolton Libraries Online Catalogue

Find out what Bolton readers have enjoyed – or hated! Follow the “Recently Reviewed Titles” link in the What’s New box to see recent reviews by our library community. Want to post your own review? Just log in to your account, search for a title in the usual way, select it, then follow the link “Add a Review”.

<https://bolton.spydus.co.uk/cgi-bin/spydus.exe/MSGTRN/WPAC/HOME>

Which Book

An unusual way of selecting a read, this site asks “What are you in the mood for?” From short or long, beautiful or disgusting, funny or serious, there are loads of options to choose from. It’s interesting to see if you agree with their choices too!

<https://www.whichbook.net/>

Time to Read – Libraries Promoting Readers

Recommendations with a local flavour, this site offers suggestions from librarians right across the North West.

<http://time-to-read.co.uk/our-recommendations-2/>

<http://time-to-read.co.uk/themed-collections/>

<https://readinggroups.org/find-a-book>

Reading Groups for Everyone

Aimed at Book Groups, this site includes loads of information to help individual readers, from recommendations to themed book lists.

<https://readinggroups.org/find-a-book>

Good Reads – Meet your next Favourite Book

A popular and long running site from the US, this is great for reviews, themed lists and has a great “Quotes” section.

<https://www.goodreads.com/>

World Book Night

An annual celebration in the UK of the best of recently published books. This site lists all the books chosen since 2011 and has a lovely mix of novels and memoirs.

<https://worldbooknight.org/books/previous>

Library Thing

Designed as a cataloguing and social networking site for book lovers, this site has 1000s of reviews to browse through. You might be inspired to catalogue your bookshelves too.

<https://www.librarything.com/>

Greater Manchester BorrowBox

Our eBook and eAudio website highlights the most recent and the most popular downloads. It also offers suggestions by genre and by age for children. Register with your Bolton library card to borrow for free.

https://fe.bolindigital.com/wldcs_bol_fo/b2i/mainPage.html?b2bSite=5632

